CR SMITH
home sweeter home

Welcome

I have always felt that our guests at The Shoot are like an extended family. This has particular bearing when it comes to the charities we support. It is because of Derek Smith that we support JDRF. And when Shirley Linton asked us to help raise funds for Maggie's Centres, there was no hesitation.

Over the past few months we have asked others to put forward their recommended charities and I am delighted to announce that, as well as continuing to support JDRF and Maggie's, this year we are also raising money for three smaller charities, all of which help young people.

The first is Seamab, a charity which provides intensive, specialist care and education for Scotland's most vulnerable children. The charity has ambitious plans to improve and expand, including the redevelopment of the school and the homes where the children live. It has appointed Chris Stewart as its Chairman to help manage this essential project from start to finish.

I personally know Seamab to be an exceptional organisation, with truly dedicated staff doing a job that few of us could contemplate and I'm pleased that we're able to help them.

The second is The Polar Academy as recommended by Keith Neilson. It works with secondary school children who are lacking in confidence and trains them for an expedition to Arctic Greenland. These young people learn that no adversity or challenge is too big, and use their experience to act as role models to others. The Shoot is supporting an initiative to ensure that once the expedition is over, its legacy remains in the school through the funding of a Polar Academy Club.

Finally, we are supporting HorseBack UK. Bill Dunnett has spoken passionately about how it has inspired the recovery of ex-military personnel by using horsemanship as a way to reconnect and bring back self-esteem. It is now looking to take this unique programme to vulnerable secondary school children and we're delighted to be able to support them with this.

All these charities offer an incredibly enriching story, and my thanks go to Derek, Shirley, Chris, Keith and Bill for bringing them to us. The Shoot is always about having a good time while helping other people and I'm very grateful for your support in making that happen.

Event Timetable

8.30am — Registration and breakfast.

9.30am — Welcome and team briefing.

10am — Competition begins with a shotgun start.

The Adam & Company Tented Village opens with complimentary hospitality and entertainment. Sit back and relax with Sunday newspapers, glossy magazines, coffee and homemade cakes. Why not book yourself an appointment at The Shoot 'Spa', with express lashes, make-up, mini-manicures and hair styling all on offer.

The 'Have A Go' stand is open all morning next to stand three, giving novices the opportunity to try out clay pigeon shooting. And why not visit Tesla next to the Tented Village to check out its range of electric cars.

11am - 1pm — Nick Nairn will be entertaining guests in the Tented Village with cookery demonstrations throughout the morning. And Holland Cooper will showcase its autumn/winter collection in three salon shows - all running at regular intervals.

12noon — It's Pimm's o'clock! Sit back with a glass of Pimm's No. 1 and enjoy music from Manilla Strings.

1.30pm — Make your way down to the Main Marquee for the Pickering's drinks reception and try its new pink grapefruit and lemongrass gin liqueur, a gin and tonic or a glass of chilled champagne.

2.30pm — Lunch.

3.30pm — Afternoon activities in the Main Marquee, hosted by our MC Willie Allan MBE, including: the prize-giving, auctions, live entertainment from the West End Experience and MINI Cooper raffle.

7pm — Close.

The Shoot Charities

Built in the grounds of NHS cancer hospitals, Maggie's Centres are places of great support to cancer patients and their families. Professional staff are on hand to help both patients and carers who are facing the tough questions, exhausting treatments and difficult emotions that cancer can bring. The first Maggie's Centre opened in 1996 and there are now 21 centres across the UK. Last year Maggie's welcomed over 200,000 visitors and that number is expected to increase substantially over the next three years.

JDRF is the type 1 diabetes research charity for funding and coordinating ground breaking clinical studies around the world, including projects in Dundee and Edinburgh. More than 30,000 people in Scotland live with the condition and numbers are increasing at a rate of about 4% each year, particularly in children under five. Type 1 diabetes is an autoimmune disease and cannot be prevented. JDRF is working to capitalise further on Scotland's expertise in biotech and life science sectors in order to find the cure.

Seamab Where we live.

Seamab is a residential school located in Kinross-shire. It provides specialist, intensive care for Scotland's most vulnerable children. It believes that children can heal, grow and learn, even when they have experienced severe trauma, neglect and loss. Each child is supported by a truly dedicated group of adults, who help them to regain trust in others. Our support will help them to develop the school's facilities.

The Polar Academy works with secondary school pupils who are constrained by a lack of self-esteem. It gives them the chance to redefine their physical and mental limits by taking part in rigorous training and a 10 day polar expedition in Greenland. The Shoot is supporting the development of a Polar Academy legacy programme, helping young people build their confidence and act as role models to others.

HorseBack UK aims to inspire and promote positive change through the delivery of therapy programmes using horsemanship. It works with serving or former military personnel and disengaged school pupils, all of whom are suffering from physical injuries, mental illness or are vulnerable in other ways. We will be helping them expand their support with young people in the local area.

Competition Prizes

Hello and welcome to the 17th Shoot. We have a great competition lined up for you, loaded with action.

The competition route will run from the high tower at the top of the hill down towards the clubhouse and to make sure everyone is awake and alert, there will be a shotgun start. The change in direction seemed to confuse a few last year, but the downhill course did prove particularly popular with those who had too many bacon rolls at breakfast.

Our categories are once more Rookies, Half Shots and Game Shots, with prizes and trophies awarded for the Top Gun, Top Team and Top Flush team in each category. There's also the trophy for the Top Flypast, which can be from any category, and Top Lady. With a record number of ladies taking part this year, that's one to watch.

My challenge to everyone this year, however, is to clean The Flush. In 16 years no one has ever scored full marks and it's about time it happened.

Have fun, meet new friends and good shooting everyone.

Our MC and Auctioneer

I really look forward to The Shoot and getting the chance to see everyone again. On the day itself, one of my favourite things is the presentation of the Jim Paterson Trophy for kindness and generosity. Jim was a great friend and supporter of The Shoot, whose joyousness epitomises the whole event.

I was particularly reminded of Jim last November when I went to receive my MBE. Jim, a renowned plumber, always said that he would be OK at Buckingham Palace as he was Corgi registered. So, it was with Jim's words ringing in my ears that I stepped up to meet the Queen. It was a simply wonderful moment - all 45 seconds - and Jim's sense of humour carried me through the nerves.

It also serves to remind us all that we should not be afraid to enjoy life and grasp every single moment, however short. There's an old Fife miners' saying - "there were people on the Titanic who refused the sweet trolley"; don't be one of them!

Have fun and enjoy your day!

Willie Allan MBE

The Main Auction

The following selection of exclusive holidays, experiences and items will be auctioned live, after lunch, by our MC and Auctioneer, Willie Allan MBE.

Lot 1 200 bird day at Fasque Estate for up to ten guns

Fasque is a 9,000 acre estate situated on the south-east edge of the Grampian mountain range, close to the small town of Laurencekirk; its pheasant shooting is widely regarded as among the best in the UK. Many of the drives are on high slopes with spectacular arcing views over the east coast of Scotland, from Aberdeen to Dundee and, on a clear day, over the Mearns of Angus and down to St Andrews in Fife.

This prize consists of a formal 200 bird day at Fasque for up to ten guns, to be taken on a date to be mutually agreed within the 2018/19 shooting season.

Hosted by Bill Dunnett, your day will begin at 8.30am with a champagne breakfast at Balbegno Castle before heading out to begin the shoot at 9.30am. A hamper lunch will be served in the field and the guns will return around 3pm for cocktails and a shoot dinner.

Challenging high birds, great fun and plenty of laughter are guaranteed. This would be a great day to share with friends or for corporate hospitality.

VIP Abu Dhabi Grand Prix package for four

The Abu Dhabi Grand Prix is one of the world's most exciting Formula 1 events; it was the first ever day-night race in Formula 1 and has a unique atmosphere as the cars rip around the Yas Marina circuit in the gulf twilight. As the climax to the F1 season, this is the place where the World Championship can be won and lost and you have the opportunity to be there and experience all the action in true VIP style, as part of the Abode Property private group from 23rd to 26th November 2018.

Staying in Dubai, your VIP package for two couples includes private airport transfers to the five star Grosvenor House Hotel, an instantly recognisable landmark with its glittering twin towers in the Dubai Marina, which will be your home for the next three nights. You and your guests will check into luxurious premier rooms in Tower 2, offering spectacular views of the Marina below.

Your full weekend of hospitality kicks off with a fabulous brunch on the Friday, where you can expect free-flowing champagne, the finest seafood and the most exquisite surroundings. After brunch there's the option of attending the first party of the weekend or you may prefer to go shopping, sightseeing or simply make the most of the hotel's wonderful facilities. Saturday is the pre-F1 party at the Grosvenor's iconic Siddharta Lounge, where chic and glamour are the order of the day. On race day itself, you're invited to brunch at RW1 by Gary Rhodes, which is conveniently located within your hotel. Luxury cars will then arrive to take you to the Yas Marina Circuit, which is just over an hour away, where you will experience the tension and exhilaration of F1 from what must undoubtedly be the best seats on the circuit.

Your base for the afternoon and evening will be the Origins Terrace at the Yas Viceroy Hotel, which has been exclusively booked for the Abode party. The champagne will be flowing and you'll have the very best of hospitality all day long with unbelievable views of the race, with the track just a few metres away from the terrace. Transport for the group will then be arranged to take you back to the Grosvenor or if you prefer, stay on for the post-race concert featuring Guns N' Roses as the headline act and taxi home later.

This has to be the ultimate package for four people to enjoy the delights of Formula 1 in the height of luxury. Please note that flights are not included.

Lot 3Glen Scouller RSW RGI Lobster Fishermen, Crail.
Oil on canvas, 56" x 60"

Glen Scouller is a contemporary Scottish artist living in Ayrshire. His passion is for colour and light with a strong bold approach to his subject matter which includes landscape, still life and the human figure. Scouller's work is based on direct observation from nature, painting en plein air and developing larger works in the studio.

Elected a member of The Royal Scottish Society of Painters in Watercolour (RSW) in 1997 and The Royal Glasgow Institute of the Fine Arts (RGI) in 1989, he has also won many awards for his work in both oil and watercolour and is included in numerous corporate and public collections worldwide including The South African Government, The Scottish Government, De Beers and The Royal Bank of Scotland.

One of the highest profile artists in the country, Scouller has had sell out shows at the Portland Gallery in London, Open Eye Edinburgh and The Roger Billcliffe Gallery in Glasgow. His paintings are highly collectable and this stunning oil on canvas, entitled 'Lobster Fishermen, Crail' has been painted specifically for The Shoot. It would make an important addition and investment to any private collection. Painting is 56" x 60".

End of Festival Party 2019

BREWIN DOLPHIN

Enjoy an evening of celebration to mark the end of the International Festival with what must be one of the best views in Edinburgh. Brewin Dolphin is delighted to invite a party of up to 22 people to a very special evening in its boardroom, which has the stunning backdrop of Edinburgh Castle. You and your guests will have exclusive use of the boardroom and surrounding balcony for a drinks reception followed by a sumptuous three course dinner served with fine wines. After dark, the entertainment will begin at what is sure to be the ultimate dinner party for a group of family, friends or business contacts.

With over 400,000 fireworks launched from the castle, this is one of the biggest fireworks concerts in the world. Around a quarter of a million people gather across the city and beyond to share in this annual International Festival finale each year as the glittering pyrotechnics illuminate the castle. The date has still to be confirmed but is likely to be Monday 26th August 2019.

Iain Faulkner, Sunset Reflection

Oil on canvas, 42" x 42"

Scottish artist Iain Faulkner graduated from Glasgow School of Art in 1996 with a BA in Fine Art. He has had numerous solo shows in the UK, USA, France, Switzerland, Spain and Italy and his work appears in many private and corporate collections around the world. Currently only represented in the Pontone Gallery in London, this is a rare opportunity to see his work in Scotland and The Shoot is delighted to auction this very special painting entitled Sunset Reflection, which was completed especially for this event.

Set in Troon, looking over to Arran, the location was chosen primarily for the position of the setting sun and for the large expanse of wet sand and pooling water for the reflections. The painting is typical of Faulkner's style and depicts a single figure taking a moment to be by himself, at the end of the day, to reflect, his internal reflection mirrored in the physical reflections in the water. His work often shows rising or setting suns, which add both visual atmosphere and reinforce the idea of reflection on the day ahead or the day gone by. As with most of his paintings, the figure is an everyman and its meaning is left open to interpretation.

Faulkner's work is in high demand and this stunning painting will make a great addition and investment to any private or corporate collection. Painting is 42" x 42" and framed in a contemporary black floating frame.

A day of food and fine wines with friends at the Nick Nairn Cook School

The Nick Nairn Cook School makes a brilliant day out no matter what your cooking ability (or inability), offering a huge variety of inspiring courses and lots of fun. Nick is delighted to offer this very special experience to a group of up to 24 which has been designed exclusively for The Shoot and can be taken on a Saturday to be agreed within the next 12 months.

Your day will begin at 12 noon when you are welcomed to the Cook School with canapés and champagne (or bacon rolls and champagne if you prefer). Your guests will then make their way to the state of the art kitchen where Nick and executive chef Andrew Dixon will guide you through a delicious two-course menu throughout the afternoon, sharing cheffy tips and celebrity stories along the way. When the kitchen work is complete, you get to relax and enjoy the fruits of your labour in the beautiful surroundings of the dining room.

After the dinner you'll be joined by Doug Wood, the charismatic owner of WoodWinter Wine & Whiskies, who will share his knowledge and enthusiasm whilst taking you through a selection of fine wines. There will be lots of opportunity to chat with Doug as you work your way through one of Nick's infamous cheese boards. As the day draws to a close, taxis will arrive to take you back to Stirling or other central location.

Lot 7

A day's shooting at Finderlie with Nick Nairn

This would be a great day for entertaining clients, friends or family at Gerard Eadie's shoot at Lands of Finderlie, near Kinross, with a driven day for four guns plus partners, which will be jointly hosted by Gerard Eadie and Nick Nairn.

Your day will begin with coffee and bacon rolls before setting off for the morning drives, stopping for elevenses and lunch in the shooting hut. Then it's back out for the afternoon drives, finishing with a chance to sample a few nips from Gerard's extensive whisky collection back in "the howff". The ladies will then join the party for champagne and canapés before moving through to the dining room for a dinner party to remember. After checking progress in the kitchen, Nick will join you for dinner and regale you with stories from his recent travels and encounters with other celebrities.

This day would be equally suited to experienced shooters or novices to the sport as shooting chaperones can be provided. Overnight accommodation at a local hotel is included and a driver can also be provided to take the partners on a shopping trip to Perth or Edinburgh during the day.

Gerard Eadie CBE and Nick Nairn

Lot 8

The Archerfield Experience for eight guns plus partners

The ultimate lot for entertaining a group of friends, family or business contacts with a day's driven partridge shooting for a party of eight guns in East Lothian including dinner and five star accommodation at Archerfield House for the guns and partners. Archerfield House is a beautifully restored 17th century mansion which will be yours for this trip. Its history includes names such as Winston Churchill and Mary Queen of Scots and the stunning mansion house is the jewel in the crown of the 550 acre Archerfield Estate with 12 luxurious suites which are all individually designed.

Your prize begins at Archerfield Clubhouse with coffee before the guns are transported in a fleet of 4x4s to the shoot, which is some 40 minutes away, where bacon rolls await you. The estate spans some 4,500 acres and its varied terrain ranges from open rolling countryside to sharp, steep valleys and high hillsides, meaning the day can be tailored to suit the guns' abilities. After the first couple of drives, you'll break for a champagne lunch before a further two drives in the afternoon. Then it's back to Archerfield on convoy to check into your luxury accommodation. Partners may like to spend the day shopping in nearby North Berwick or relaxing in Fletchers' Cottage Spa - Archerfield's stylishly designed, brilliantly executed, Scandi-look spa. In the evening, your guests and partners will meet in the dining room for a delightful relaxed dinner party where you will be joined by your hosts and their guests, with all your drinks and wine included. In the morning, after breakfast there will be the opportunity for everyone to enjoy either a round of golf or visit the spa. This fabulous prize for eight guns plus partners allows you to experience Archerfield in all its parts and is to be taken on Tuesday 9th October 2018.

Silent Auction

The silent auction will be open throughout the afternoon using an electronic bidding system. The current highest bidder for each lot will be displayed on the plasma screens around the marquee and on the tablets on your table. Winning bidders will be notified after the event at which point invoices and auction items will be posted out. We would kindly request that invoices are paid within seven days.

How to place a bid

Step one:

Search for the item you wish to bid for by typing in the Lot Number in the search bar or by scrolling through the tablet by category or by guide price.

Step two:

Simply tap 'Place Bid' and then select your name from the list. The names of all the guests at your table should appear on your tablet, however if your name is missing please alert one of the Team Hosts.

You will be prompted to create a four digit pin number which you will then use each time you bid.

You will also be asked to enter a mobile number and email address. These will only be used to make contact with you after the event if your bid has been successful and not for any other purpose.

Step three:

Enter the amount you would like to bid then tap 'Confirm'. You can opt to make your bid 'Anonymous' at this stage if you don't want your name to appear on the plasma screens. You will be informed if your bid has been successful or if you need to raise your bid via a message that will appear on the tablet.

After you place your bid, you will be given the option to enter a 'Maximum Bid Amount'. This is a great way of ensuring you don't miss out on auction lots you really want. If you choose this option, the system will automatically bid for you up to this amount each time you are outbid.

To make sure you don't miss out on the items you want, keep an eye on the overhead screens to make sure you're still the highest bidder. For a snapshot of your bidding activity simply click on 'My Bids' at any time.

Fully fitted ladies or gents award-winning Blaser F16 Shotgun

Blaser

Blaser has been one of the leading manufacturers of hunting rifles and shotguns in Europe for 60 years and is delighted to donate the latest addition to its range, the F16 shotgun, in either the gents or ladies model, fully fitted and presented in a deluxe travel case. Passionate about perfection, the F16 marked the launch of the next generation of game shotguns for Blaser. This perfectly balanced over and under shotgun has the lowest profile receiver on the market, giving it an exceptionally low centre of gravity, and making it extraordinarily pointable and dynamic. The F16 action features the Inertial Block System (IBS) that enhances shooter safety and comfort by preventing the ability for the shotgun to fan fire or double. It has been extremely well received by the shooting press and has already won a series of awards including The Shooting Industry Awards Best Shotgun 2017. Your shotgun can be left or right handed and custom fitted in Guildford, Scotland or Northern Ireland.

Donated by Hendry, Ramsay &
Waters (Worldwide) Ltd
and Fuentefresno Estate
scothunt.co.uk

Hendry, Ramsay & Waters is delighted to offer this outstanding opportunity for two guns plus partners to enjoy two 400 bird days of driven partridge at Fuentefresno, some 45 minutes north east of Madrid. This scenic estate provides the ideal habitat for red legged partridges and its varied terrain, made up of valleys with olive trees, vineyards and arable land, presents excellent fast flying birds in every drive. Fuentefresno is remarkably relaxed and the estate is a favourite of European Royalty including King Juan Carlos, who shoots here on a regular basis each season. A warm welcome from your hosts is guaranteed and the cuisine and service equal the quality of the sport with the most wonderful tapas and drinks between the drives. Lunch is a tremendous event which is generally served after the 3rd drive. This trip is to be taken between 21st and 23rd February 2019 and includes full board at the lodge for four people for two nights, two days' shooting for two guns, all drinks, airport transfers, Spanish hunting licences, airport firearms tax, cartridges, loaders and secretarios. Guests generally fly into Madrid and many choose to extend their stay to include some sightseeing in the capital. Please note that flights are not included.

Two guns at Constable Burton, North Yorkshire for a driven day with accommodation

Laurence Hawley is delighted to donate two guns to shoot as part of a line of eight on a 300 bird driven day at Constable Burton Estate this season. The shoot itself spans 3,000 acres with 35 drives comprised mainly of woodland, pocket valleys and undulating parkland, where the main quarry is pheasant with some partridge and duck to boot. The landscape lends itself to testing birds and is exceptionally well run, allowing you to shoot consistently throughout the day. This is rolling English countryside at its finest – the TV series Heartbeat was filmed on the estate! Also included is accommodation and dinner for the night before at a local hotel with the company of Gerard Eadie and Grant Yorke, who are also guests on this shoot. Date to be confirmed.

Walked up shooting for 4-6 guns at Broomhall Estate

Photographer: Tina Norris

Broomhall Estate sits on the north shore of the Firth of Forth near Dunfermline and offers the best in Scottish Lowland shooting, wrapped in a piece of sensational Scottish history. Home to the Earls of Elgin and Kincardine, the 2,500 acre estate has a distinctive landscape of wooded ridges and gently rolling farmland.

Over 70 woodlands have been established here since the 1750s and provide well-stocked coverts for holding game. This prize offers a walked up day for 4-6 guns with the gamekeeper to be taken on a date to be mutually agreed in the coming season.

Three rods for three days fishing on the Upper Findhorn

This prize offers three rods for three days on the Freeburn beat of the Upper Findhorn to be taken between 24-26 September 2018 or carried forward to the next season by arrangement. The Freeburn is one mile left bank on the river Findhorn near Tomatin which can support a maximum of three rods at any time in four well-established pools and a couple of good runs. Freeburn has been very rarely fished for the past few years and the full potential of the beat is yet to be fully realised – September has seen a number of fish caught even when water levels have been low. Fishing is strictly by fly only and Freeburn supports the river Findhorn conservation code.

Three rods for a day at Fishponds, River Tay with luxury accommodation

The Fishponds beat forms the upper part of the stretch of the river formerly known as the Lower Scone Salmon Fishings and includes 20 pools which offer a wide variety of fishing. The beat is fished in two parts - Fishponds and Knowesbank and there is excellent access to the river bank from Fishponds Cottages and by the Iron Burn. There is a comfortable fishing hut serving both upper and lower Fishponds beats which provide all visiting anglers with the comforts of home. This prize offers three rods on a day to be mutually agreed between 15th January and 15th May 2019 and includes the services of a ghillie. In addition to this, the lucky winner will have two nights' complimentary accommodation in the luxurious Balvaird apartment, a three bedroom five-star self-catering apartment located within Scone Palace.

Two days' fishing for seven rods at Dalguise

The Dalguise beat is situated about two miles downstream of the confluence of the Rivers Tay and Tummel and extends to approximately 1.25 miles of double bank Middle Tay fishing. Set amongst spectacular scenery, Dalguise is one of the most attractive beats of the mid Tay and boasts a wide array of both plant and wildlife on its riverbanks, including kingfishers, otters and ospreys, which have been seen fishing on the river. The beat has nine major named pools, several of which can only be described as a fly-fisherman's dream. It can fish well in all heights of water and, dependent on the time of year, water height and temperature, the ghillie will advise your party on the most likely pools, 'taking places' and tactics. Dates to be mutually agreed for a party of seven rods for two days in the 2018/19 season.

John Damari

Archie's wee crofts, Ben More, Isle of Mull. Oil on canvas 76cm x 61cm

John Damari was born in Italy and educated at the Accademia Europea di Firenze. His influences are his love of nature and the outdoors – the ruggedness and majesty of the mountains and the calmness of the sea along the coastline of Western Scotland and its islands.

John's trademark use of the palette knife, combined with vibrant colours, captures the feeling and atmosphere of his subject matter and inspires reaction in his viewers. This can be seen in this stunning oil on canvas painting entitled "Archie's wee crofts, Ben More, Isle of Mull" which he is delighted to donate to the auction. Archie's crofts are situated in a remote part of the island and John was inspired by the beauty and peacefulness of the surrounding rugged landscape. The painting measures 76cm x 61cm and is beautifully framed.

Wee crofts on Scarnish, Isle of Tiree. Oil on canvas 76cm x 61cm

The second painting from Renfrewshire artist John Damari is oil on canvas and painted using mainly a palette knife. John draws inspiration from the ever-changing light over the water, capturing the vibrant colours of the landscape and this stunning framed seascape entitled 'Wee crofts on Scarnish, Isle of Tiree' is typical of his work. This was painted from a beautiful spot on Tiree looking out to sea where the quality of light is wonderful. John has been a great supporter of The Shoot for many years and we are fortunate to be one of the many charities he supports every year with donations of paintings. The painting measures 76cm x 61cm and is beautifully framed.

Epicurean Indulgence for two at The Peat Inn

The Peat Inn has existed since the mid 1700s. Gradually, the surrounding village grew up around the Inn and took its name from the Inn itself, creating the unusual address: The Peat Inn, Peat Inn. The original building has served through the centuries as a coaching inn, a hotel, a pub and restaurant, and throughout these changing incarnations, The Peat Inn has an uninterrupted history of offering hospitality for around 250 years. Today, it is a stunning Michelin Star restaurant with rooms, owned and run by husband and wife team, Geoffrey and Katherine Smeddle. The winning bidder of this prize will enjoy a luxury Epicurean Indulgence package for two comprising bed and breakfast with dinner from the six course Tasting Menu excluding wine. The prize is available Tuesdays, Wednesdays or Thursdays throughout the year and is to be taken by 7th June 2019.

Dinner for two at Michael Smith's Loch Bay Restaurant

Michael Smith first earned a Michelin star in 2014 as Chef Director of The Three Chimneys. In early 2016, Inverness born Smith opened his own restaurant and within 18 months he was once again awarded one Michelin star, making Loch Bay the only Scottish recipient of the accolade in the 2017/18 guide. Situated in Stein in the Waternish peninsula of Skye, the restaurant is small, welcoming and comfortable and offers a five course seafood degustation and a set three course meal. Described as “contemporary Scottish with classic French influences”, the food is quite simply delicious, combining great ingredients, perfect cooking and beautiful but unfussy presentation. As a previous celebrity chef at The Shoot, Michael is delighted to offer dinner for two guests from either the seafood or tasting menu, which he will personally cook for you. A bottle of house wine is also included. To be taken within 12 months of The Shoot.

Locked In at the Distillery escape game for five Pickering's Gin and Locked In Edinburgh have teamed up to offer an experience like no other with the first distillery-themed escape game. Located at Summerhall, the escape game makes use of the original rooms in the old small animal hospital, which closed its doors to veterinary teaching back in 2011. You and your four team mates will be on a mission to uncover the identity of the disgruntled employee plotting against the Distillery and find out what they're up to. You need to solve the clues in less than an hour to save yourself and more importantly save the gin! After your escape game you'll move next door to Pickering's to see how hand crafted, small batch gin is made, sample the range of gin and then retire to The Royal Dick Bar for a two course pub lunch, washed down with a Pickering's and tonic. To be taken by end of April 2019.

Lindores Abbey experience for eight

This truly unique day out for a party of eight at Lindores Abbey, near Cupar, would be a fantastic way to celebrate a special occasion or event with friends, family or colleagues. Lindores Abbey, with its widely recognised links to the earliest written reference to Scotch Whisky, has been a pilgrimage destination for people travelling to this quiet corner of Fife for centuries. This prize allows you and your companions to experience something completely different in the atmospheric Apothecary. These classes offer a fantastic chance to get ‘hands on’ in making your own delicious version of Aqua Vitae using the innovative ‘Rotp-Vap’ technique and adding your selection of herbs, hand-picked from the Abbey gardens, spices and fruit essences to the new make spirit. These engaging sessions are around two and a half hours in duration and include welcome refreshments, a distillery tour and tasting. In addition to this you will record your bespoke recipe for posterity into the leather-bound leger before hand-labelling your own 20cl bottle of Aqua Vitae to take away and enjoy. Your day will conclude with a two-course lunch served in the beautiful surroundings of the Legacy Bar, with its glorious views of Lindores Abbey and the River Tay beyond.
